Series Four Talks by Raj Vedam at ASGH

- Jun 23rd – Toxicity of Enforced Narratives on the Hindu Identity
- Hindus have endured centuries of destruction to their way of life, their economy, their institutions and their identity. A horrendously distorted narrative on the Hindu identity has taken root in media and academia which is completely contrary to the evidence and lived experience of this civilization. The speaker will outline key distortions that negatively impact Indians and Indian-Americans and will show the spuriousness of those narratives

- Jun 30th - Are we “Aryans” & “Dravidians”?
- A primary distortion imposed on the Indian civilization is to divide them into “Aryans”, “Dravidians” and tribal. This distortion is enforced in textbooks, media and policies. Such divisions are completely absent in the deep history of the civilization. The speaker will harness evidence from several fields of study to reveal the deep antiquity of a common civilization in all of Bharat, thereby contesting the enforced divisions

- Jul 7th - The Novelty of Indian Knowledge Systems
- Western historians of science obligatorily source all of knowledge systems in ancient Greece. Such a distortion diminishes and does grave injustice to the vast expanse of Indian Knowledge Systems in areas such as Astronomy, Medicine, Mathematics, and more. The speaker will highlight the advances made by ancient Indians till the colonial period in the various sciences.

- Jul 14th- Impact of Indian Knowledge Systems & Its Downfall
- In Western narrations of the history of science India remains an inconsequential footnote, taking an imposed backseat to allow Western exaltation of Greece as the source of knowledge. The speaker reveals in shocking detail how Indian sciences impacted various old world civilizations in several periods of time. He will also show the downfall of Indian knowledge systems with the onset of colonialism.
